

กระทรวงแรงงาน

MOL Along With Relevant Agencies Have Pushed Forward Solving Human Trafficking Problems By Showing Their Implementation To Create Understanding To The Public

Currently, Thailand has further progressed in solving human trafficking problems according to its missions than specified in Tip Report according to the policy of the policy of National Council for Peace and Order (NCPO) which have systematic integrated resolution such as alien worker management system, revision of the laws, etc. Certainly, the coordination among relevant agencies would be more flexible, Deputy Permanent Secretary said.

Ministry of Labour collaborated with many agencies pushed forward solving human trafficking problems by open anti-human trafficking public forum on 1 August. It underlies the utmost effective performance under the policy of National Council for Peace and Order (NCPO). ML. Puntarik Samitti, Deputy Permanent Secretary of MOL revealed after presiding over the meeting of Anti-Human Trafficking Committee in the issue on prevention at meeting room of Office of Permanent Secretary of MOL, 5th floor, MOL building. There were representatives from relevant agencies such as Royal Thai Navy, Marine Police Division, Anti Human Trafficking Division, National Police Agency, Department of Fisheries, Department of Employment, Department of Social Security and Welfare attended the meeting which have the conclusion on the issues of human trafficking Tip report from USA. in 2014 consisting of several issues. At present, Ministry of Social Development and Human Stability would held public forum on the topic of “public forum..for anti-human trafficking” on 1 August 2014 with the aims to publicize the success on human trafficking resolutions 2014 and to clarify the issues that Thailand was accused in Tip Report 2014 as well as to present the further step for implementation.